Customer Reviews

“To whom it may concern, This was the first time I did business with Good Characters. I must say, the service with Andy was amazing. I was VERY pleased with the service and delivery was outstanding. The only issue was that I noticed only afterwards that your prices were much higher than other places we contacted. Otherwise good job :)”

— Carmelina, Montreal, QC, Canada

“Great people to work with — totally customer service focused!”

— Karen, Haskell, NJ

“I have been a Good Characters customer for over five years. The service that I receive from this company is outstanding. I just bought a custom embosser and the workmanship is beyond good... it is outstanding. The embosser that I had made by Good Characters is going to be used for certificates for the Ryukyu Karate Bujutsu Association. I could not find any where in my home state of Alaska (Anchorage) that could make a custom made embosser. I figured that Good Characters could meet my needs and they certainly did that hands down. Thank you Andy Chuang and your staff for working with me to get the perfect embosser.”

— Hanshi Avelino, Anchorage, AK

“I am completely satisfied with Good Characters. I only wish they had more on their own website for ordering a stone Chinese name chop with your new Chinese name on it. Instead, I had to go through another artist and it made the process take longer.”

—Jeffrey, Aurora, CO

“I will say the stamp I purchased from Good Characters is of excellent quality. The only problem I had was the time it took to get my purchase. Needing my stamp for a martial arts event I was hosting, I ordered it a month ahead of my event. I ordered from Good Characters because they stated on their website they would deliver within 7 to 10 days. As my deadline was approaching and no stamp in sight, I e-mail Good Characters. They responded right away, which made me happy, and admitted they were a little slow getting their orders processed. Their customer service is outstanding! Andy stayed in contact with me and I received my stamp a day ahead of the event as promised. Other than the delay in getting my stamp, I am very pleased with the product I ordered and their customer service. I will order from them again and would give them 5’s across the board if it wasn’t for the delay.”

— Hanshi Avelino, Anchorage, AK

“I ordered 4 ink pad replacements for my Trodat Printy 4913 and paid $ for shipping the very light small package, and still did not have it by December 3rd, so I called and left a message on December 6th, and they did promptly return my call, and assured me they would be shipping promptly. Obviously, they completely blew shipping it until I brought it to their attention. But, true to their word, they did get it out (only after I called a week later), and they did get it to me by December 8th, via USPS. Not happy with time it took to get it, and the fact that I had to call to alert them to the problem, but at least they did respond promptly once I left a message, so I will give them credit for that.”

— Brian, Indianapolis, IN

“As always, ordering from this company had been a true pleasure! The whole process from finding my items on the web site, to the actual ordering process was top drawer and 1st class from start to finish.

This company is highly recommended!”

— Stewart, Fort Bragg, CA

“This is my second order from this vendor. As the first time, I was delighted at the response I received from Good Characters. My order was completed and shipped in a timely manner and all goods were as described. Of further mention is the level of customer service that this vendor has shown. I have had the opportunity and need for some discussion regarding aspects of my purchase and all email’s were promptly returned and were very complete in their scope. As before, I will continue to shop at this vendor and recommend them highly. Also worth mention is the pricing, it is very competitive with regards to the other firms out there selling the same or near same items. Value is the watchword when it comes to Good Characters.

Very Highly recommended.”

— Stewart, Fort Bragg, CA

“From the start to finish the experience with Good Characters has been exemplary! Responses to Email questions were fast accurate and informational. My choices in shipping were perfect and cost effective. The quality and Value of the goods were beyond my expectations. It is so easy for a person to be fooled by online offerings where it comes to quality Chinese Calligraphy tools and accessories. This is not the case with Good Characters! They provide an excellent Value and quality item that preforms! Over the past 15/20 years I have shopped online for various Calligraphy items and have never been fully satisfied by the offerings of any one company, until now. I know when I place an order with Good Characters, I can rest assured that it is the very best product for the price offered. They have in this reviewer, a customer for life.”

— Stewart, Fort Bragg, CA

is not easy, and they did it well.”

“Great products and many hard to find items.
Many products, however, don't have pictures or descriptions, or both. I may have ordered more if I actually knew what I was ordering. So, please keep adding pics and descriptions for your products.
Your prices are so great that I'd love to refer people to you, but I'm sure they'd be a little wary of the site as it is.
Thanks for some very nice, simple ink stones!”

“Unsurpassed quality with their products. Web site is very nice and organized. In regards to customer service, I am sure that they take pride in making sure every customer is well taken care of. My personal experience was not bad, but since the company was so busy, I was left unattended and with questions for a week. All items purchased come along with business cards from the President of the company (Great Business practice). Which allows you to contact him directly. I thank him for his quick response. Prices seem a little high, but if you look around, you won't find a more professional or better deal!”

“I am using the double happiness character as the main theme for our Asian wedding and was looking for ways to add flair to inexpensive wedding invitations, thank you notes and programs.

The double happiness stamp that I purchased from Good Characters was exactly what I was looking for. Despite being somewhat pricey for one small stamp it has more than paid for itself with repeated use so I'm glad I finally broke down and bought it. My only complaint is that the stamp does not come in more than one size. Overall I'm very happy with the product and this company.”

“Andy was a delight to work with; very responsive to questions I had, and he worked with me to assure that I got the Japanese character translation that I would be happiest with. I was a little confused by the ordering process (there is a price for the translation as well as a price for making the stamp and I didn’t understand that at first) so it took a little longer to get the stamp I ordered, but again, Andy was very helpful (and the delay was my fault, really). I would use Good Characters again.”

“The President of Good Characters, Mr. Andy Chuang, was personally responsive and helped me with a custom need not directly catered for in the standard catalogue. He still put that transaction through the site, so easy to track and cater for. Product received promptly, in good order and with outstanding quality. Would recommend and buy from them again.”

“Andy at Good Characters was AWESOME to work with. He was very prompt in responding to my initial order and the product was shipped even sooner than I expected. The seal that I received was very high quality and works beautifully. It takes a lot for me to be truly impressed by customer service as I have very high standards, but Good Characters met and far exceeded my expectations.

They provide a fairly unique product, but don't let the lack of competition lower their standards.

I HIGHLY recommend Good Characters!”

My chop was received within three days of mailing (West to East cost). The quality is excellent. I couldn't be more pleased and am letting everyone I know that Good Characters is just simply the best!”
